

ORP DET ORD (10/11)

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

Chester Evans Davis

Case No. CR 12- 109 SI

ORDER OF DETENTION AFTER HEARING (18 USC § 3142(i))

On motion of the Government involving an alleged:

risk to the safety of any other person or the community for cases involving crimes described in 18 USC § 3142(f)(1)
 serious risk defendant will flee;
 serious risk defendant will obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice, or threaten, injure, or intimidate a prospective witness or juror or attempt to do so,
 Upon consideration by the court sua sponte involving a:
 serious risk defendant will flee;
 serious risk defendant will obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice, or threaten, injure, or intimidate a prospective witness or juror or attempt to do so,

Having considered the nature and circumstances of the offense charged, the weight of evidence against the defendant, the history and characteristics of the defendant, and the nature and seriousness of the danger to any person and to the community that would be posed by the defendant's release, the court finds that:

The offense charged creates a rebuttable presumption in 18 USC § 3142(e) that no combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of the community.
